38 On July 8, 2019, this Court entered a temporary restraining order staying 39 Petitioner Leyanis Pila Sanchez's removal and ordering Respondents to file a return and 40 status report. Dkt. 6. Following that decision, on July 11, 2019, Ms. Pila received notice
41 that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services reconsidered her credible fear 42 determination and found that she had demonstrated a credible fear. The same day, 43 Respondent U.S. Department of Homeland Security issued a Notice to Appear on Form I-44 862, placing Ms. Pila in removal proceedings before the immigration court. Accordingly, 45

1 as Petitioner now has an opportunity to present her application for asylum to the 2 immigration court, the parties stipulate and agree that this matter is now moot and may be 3 dismissed with prejudice and without costs or fees to either party. In addition, the 4 Court's temporary stay per its July 8, 2019 Order (Dkt. No. 6) should be lifted.
